

Boundary of King's College for consideration for declaration as a monument

The East, South and North Wings of the school building as shown edged red and coloured pink, together with the adjoining old retaining walls and boundary walls as shown edged red to be considered for declaration as a monument.