

Eliot Hall, The University of Hong Kong, Pokfulam, Hong Kong

Front elevation facing Yuet Ming Fountain

Rusticated brick piers and an elaborate shaped portico at the front façade

Historic patterned floor tiles at the verandah in the north elevation

Rear elevation facing May Hall

The roof eaves with numerous supporting brackets as a design feature, and a moulded cornice underneath

Two buttresses were erected at the collapsed portion after the severe landslide in 1966