

Progress of Archaeological Project
(as at 31 May 2018)

Item	Project	Background	Progress/Result
Archaeological project undertaken by the Antiquities and Monuments Office
1.	Archaeological survey for small house development at Nam Wai in Sai Kung	An archaeological survey to examine the archaeological potential of a village house site located within the Nam Wai Site of Archaeological Interest, Sai Kung.	Fieldwork was conducted in March 2018. No significant archaeological remains were found from the test pits of the survey.