1.	Revitalisation of Central Police Station (“CPS”) Compound	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● The CPS Compound, i.e. the CPS, the Central Magistracy and the Victoria Prison, is a fine example of Victorian and Edwardian colonial architecture in Hong Kong and were declared monuments in 1995.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● The revitalised CPS Compound commenced operation as “Tai Kwun – Centre for Heritage and Arts” on 29 May 2018.● The Married Inspectors’ Quarters (i.e. Block 4) in the CPS Compound partially collapsed on 29 May 2016. The Hong Kong Jockey Club (“HKJC”) had explored and presented to the Antiquities Advisory Board (the “Board”) proposed recovery plans of Block 4. In 2021, according to the findings of a building re-appraisal that the building structure of Block 4 was weaker than anticipated, HKJC terminated the recovery plans. In December 2022, for public safety’s sake, HKJC updated the Board on its plan to remove unsafe portion of Block 4. The Board noted the removal works, and HKJC would explore and develop the Block 4’s revitalisation scheme during the removal works. In September 2024, HKJC briefed the Board about the revitalisation scheme with latest status of the building and proposed reuse of the Block 4 site.● In response to letters to the Board on HKJC’s revitalisation scheme from the Hong Kong Institute of Architects and the Hong Kong Institute of Architectural Conservationists, HKJC met the two professional institutes in November and December 2024 for engagement about the revitalisation scheme.● HKJC commenced preparatory works for revitalisation of the Block 4 site based on the revitalisation scheme presented to the
